

GIGS

Performances can help to engage with new fans as well as give your current fans a new way to interact with you. The live performance sector is now the biggest revenue stream for musicians all over the world.

Here at ChartHouse PR we will work with our partners who can facilitate gigs at a variety of venues and across music genres.

We can provide you with support slots, headline shows and your very own launch events.

