

PRESS PACKAGES

A press package is the best way of communicating your product to the various media outlets. It's made up of a short biography, relevant images and information about you as an artist. It allows journalists or industry professionals to engage with your pitch and extract the most important information in order to cover your release or piece of news.

